School Fair A Great Success

The sports held during the School Exhibition on Friday last proved enjoyable to all the participants, and as all the children present, both young and adult, were participants, it may be presumed that all enjoyed themselves. The day was cold but calm. A warm fire was kept going in the school and as those present got chilled they went into the school to get warm.

The afternoon started with a welcome to the Edgerton students at the station. To add zest, the University Rugby team which was on its way to Saskatoon, enlivened the proceedings with the Varsity yell. While renewing acquaintance with the teachers,

The Varsity men expressed their surprise at seeing such a lively little town so far from Edmonton. They seemingly were astonished when the girls present returned yell for yell.

The schools next gathered at the basketball field. Messrs Holland and G. Saul handled the games to the satisfaction of everyone, and were ably assisted by Mrs. Brent. The first game was between the Chauvin boys and a picked up team of boys from Prosperity. The Prosperity boys although they had never previously had game and made a very creditable showing, especially as some of the local boys are becoming quite expert. The next game was between the Edgerton and Chauvin H. S. Girls. It was lively from start to finish and the score of 8-14 in favor of Chauvin was a surprise. The visiting girls had improved in their months of practice. Undoubtedly they are a coming team and when Chauvin next goes to their town it will be a "battle royal"

The next game between the Edin-glassie Little Ones and the Chauvin sames resulted in a win for Edin-glassie of 8-0. Both teams played a hard game and Miss rent is to be congratulated on her excellent hopefuls.

The last game between the Teachers and a mixture of Edinglassie and Chauvin H.S. was a thrilling one for the participants. However the teachers having a great advantage in the size of their feet, managed always to keep the girls that distance from the goal posts.

From the field, everyone went to the Hall for the spelling match. Miss Roberts, teacher at Ribstone, handled the match very efficiently. There were ten on each side, and she gave some fifty words for these pupils to write. Then the oral match took place while the other teachers present marked the papers. The oral part proved a tie. The mistakes in the written work for Chauvin were: W. Saul 1; F. Cahill 0; D. Saul 0; W. Ellis 0; Erm aHass 1; E. Goede 3; G. Woodward 2; T. Villa 0; Elma Hass 1; E. Ellis 0; a total of 8 mistakes. The Edgerton team were M. Martinell 3; V. Blackwell 1; N. Baker 1; H. Tranmer 1; G. Milne 5; M. Smith 3; M. Haggarty 2; B. Wheeler 1; I. Challenger 0; M. Spornitz 2. On the result of the written work the decision was given to Chauvin. Mr Hulland is to be congratulated on the excellent showing his pupils made. They proved themselves excellent young Canadians and will undoubtedly do him honor in the years to come. He, himself is deserving of all our thanks for his efficient help during the afternoon. However, Mr. D'Albertanson, the proprietor of the Chronicle, the man who proposed and financed the scheme, is the one who in the last analysis should deserve our greatest commendation. As the

G.W.V.A.L.A. Notes

ARMISTICE DAY, 1920

It seems a pity to let the Historical Event pass without remark of any kind and I take this opportunity of reminding one and all of the eventful 11th of Nov. 1918.

Quite a number of the readers were there themselves and all are in some way related directly or indirectly to the tragedy which culminated as far as active war went, at two minutes to eleven on the eleventh day of the eleventh month 1918.

Two whole years have elapsed since then but the memory is still with us all. It took a few days to realize what it all meant to us and when we look back and see that it was a token of surrender of the hitherto invincible Hun we sigh with relief and gratitude and are thankful that the carnage, three thousand casualties a day, are no longer necessary.

Since then, with the old world slowly fighting back to its one time placid state there has been need for an armistice of another sort, and we Labors ranks will sign an armistice and real production get into its stride once again.

The local G.W.V.A. are indeed sorry that owing to the late threshing and numerous other set backs they are unable to put on this concert at this time but state that they are now at work on one which will be as good as any in the past.

This concert will take place on the 31st of December and we believe will be something new in the way of amusement.

Don't forget to leave the 31st of next month free and you are assured you will not be sorry.

In regard to Armistice Day here. The King has asked for a two minute cessation of business from 1 minute to eleven till 1 minute past in memory of the Fallen Dead. And we hope that the business men will see their way clear to do the same.

Veterans Dance at
Brady: Friday Night

A dance will be held in Brady school on Friday evening next. Nov. 12th 1920, at 8 o'clock. The returned men of the district have this dance in hand and a good, enjoyable evening is assured. Ladies will please bring baskets.

It is requested that returned men wear uniform on this occasion.

Presentation To
Johannes At Brady

The citizens of Brady District organized a farewell party and dance on Friday, October 29th in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Johannes and family who are leaving the district for Victoria, B. C.

The Brady Schoolhouse was filled to capacity by the many friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Johannes. During the evening a presentation was made of a watch to Mr. Johannes and a necklace and a purse of $30.00 to Mrs. Johannes.

The presentations were made by Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. W. Wright. An address was read by Mr. George Lawson.

The dance arrangements were ably attended to by a Committee which included Mesdames J. A. Graham, Geo. Lawson and E. Reichelt and J. Patterson.

Many hearty expressions of good were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Johannes who will take with them the remembrance of their friends of the Brady district.

Brady Sunday School

Next Sunday Nov. 14th it is proposed to hold a special service in the above school. Rev. W. A. Osborne, of Lashburn, will preach and a good crowd is looked for to hear him.

This service is a Harvest Festival and also a service to commemorate Armistice Sunday. This will also close the season for this Sunday School, and for this reason a good time is assured. The ladies are decorating the school for the occasion.

Everybody is heartily welcome, especially the returned men of the district.

Women At The Polls

Many people and periodicals are now studying the recent vote on the plebiscite, trying to make out whether or not people meant what they said, or meant something altogether different. But so far, except for certain flings at the woman's vote, the women have been taken very much for granted, and it makes many smile a bit that this is so.

Years ago there was no way in which a public speaker could be surer of raising a laugh than by picturing unfit for women. Poling places were of all places in the world were totally unfit for women. Poling places were the rendezvous of all sorts of characters that men would not wish their wives and daughters to meet. Vulgar and obscene stories were said to fill the air, and women were considered by some to be lacking in modesty in desire to go there.

Women's suggestions that perhaps their presence might make a change even in a polling booth, met the grand "ha, ha," and was further proof that women did not know what they were talking about if they thought the polling places could ever be other than they were at that time.

Besides the business conducted at the polls was serious business. It concerned money, value, property. It concerned traffic of which the women might not approve. Women never would realize that property must not be interfered with, even if proven that such property rights were a disadvantage to the homes. If the two conflicted, so much the worse for the homes. Women never would understand the exigencies of business.

Cartoons showing women knitting at the polls in an atmosphere of tobacco smoke, and suggestive of many just the funniest things imaginable, and proved conclusively that women and politics—especially voting—could not mix.

On Monday, October 25th the polls presented an entirely different picture to those who glanced into them. In more than one, no doubt, could be seen women calmly knitting perhaps, but the tobacco smoke was not in evidence nor was there any suggestion of any word which would injure the thoughts of a child. Had the picture been thrown on the screen ten years ago it would have raised loud and prolonged laughter. But so quickly do we accommodate ourselves to the inevitable that the reality has hardly raised a comment. Truly the prophecy of women that they would "clean up" the polls has been fulfilled.

They have also said that they would clean up politics in general, house-cleaning being their especial forte. But men continue to insist that politics cannot be cleaned up. They insist, too, that women are emotional rather than judicial, and will vote as their emotions dictate and not according to their judgment.

Now your scribe watched a number receiving ballots and depositing their votes. Several men were heard to say, "It don't matter which way you vote," but never a woman said that. men, perhaps, for they are not so used to the methods of voting, but women knew what they were voting for (as nearly as they could with the issue so clouded as it was) and demonstrated that they were voting their convictions. Whether their decisions were the result of their emotions or their reasons, they were the result of much careful thought.

But whether women will be able to effect a real house-cleaning in the province and the dominion remains to be seen. At present her influence in matters political extends hardly further than the polls. The present members of our law-making bodies were placed in those positions by the votes of men. They were placed there to represent men, and by the legislation which they have passed or considered, we would not guess that it has ever entered into their heads that those who follow them must represent both men and women. That only those will have a chance to go back who are willing to represent both men and women.

Not many years will elapse before we have new legislators in both our law-making bodies. Is it believable that with half the votes, women's votes, that the economic position if women will long remain as it is? Or that the returning to office of many who so believe will be possible? Or that women will tolerate two rules, one for men and another for women?

It would seem that the theory is that women can still be wheedled along, and made to believe that things are other than they are. Any man who has endeavored through the years to tell his wife fairy tales beginning "I had to work late at the office, my love," should know that it

Armistice Day

To-day people the world over are celebrating the second anniversary of the signing of the Armistice, that great event which signalizes the final triumph of the cause of freedom over the powers of a military autocracy bent upon world domination and a denial of those great principles for which liberty loving people have struggled and died throughout the long centuries of the past.

Armistice Day is one which should never be forgotten nor its significance to the whole human race ignored. It should be indelibly written upon the hearts of men and should be imperishably stamped into the minds of the children now and in generations to come. More than this each recurring anniversary of the Armistice Day may well be marked by some act of a notable character by the people in each of the countries allied in the war—a tangible and practical expression of thanks for the victory achieved—for the benefit of those whose misfortune has been human sympathy and assistance.

How To Save Grain

If you owned this great western grain field you would put up granaries and storage elevators all over, so that not a bushel of the golden grain would be lost. You wouldn't have thirty or forty million bushels rotting in the fields because there was no place to store it. Now would you? Yet the farmers organizations have allowed this state of affairs to occur. So have the three provinces governments. So have the Dominion government.

The grain being wasted this season would have built sufficient elevators at the principal points throughout the provinces to store fifty million bushels a year, and the elevators would have been good for twenty-five years service.

The West must have storage elevators in the West—not alone at Fort William and Fort Arthur. Not the little toy kind that line the railways and hold only a few thousand bushels; but the kind the railway companies already have at the head of Lake Superior—the kind that will hold four or five million bushels, clean it, and tranship it. That is what is needed at many of the large centres throughout the Western provinces.

Then when the crop is large, the railways can gather it up quickly, rush it into the storage elevators, and then move it later on at their leisure. Under our present system a car loaded in this province must travel all the way to Fort William to be unloaded and then come back for another load. Such a car makes only a few trips in a season. Hence the shortage, when there is a bumper crop.

Such a state of affairs as now exists seems unbusiness like. The Dominion government proposes to build more terminal elevators at Fort William. It is not needed as much as internal storage elevators.

Canadian Wheat Men Watch U.S. Farmers

The movement on the part of United States farmers in their operations in holding for $3 wheat is causing the utmost interest among Alberta wheat growers. There is considerable speculation as to whether the U.S. millers are actually meeting this by buying Canadian wheat. In some circles it is very definitely stated that such is the case as they have already secured at a low estimate 30,000,000 bushels of Canadian product.

A vast amount of wheat is being rushed to the head of the lakes, and while the present American demand may not altogether be the cause, as this is just now supposed to be the peak of the grain movement, some brokers are nevertheless inclined to look upon it as rather significant.

National Resources

A further conference between the dominion and the provinces on the question of the handing over by the federal authorities of the natural resources of the west to the provinces is in contemplation. The question is one of long standing and has been debated without definite result.

At a recent conference the western provinces held that they were not only entitled to the control of their resources but also to the money subsidies which they have been receiving in lieu of them, the contention being that so much of their resources had been dissipated by the federal government that the provinces are entitled to compensation.

Eastern representatives, however, and in particular those from Ontario, held that if the west was to retain its subsidies, the east should receive an amount in proportion. The dominion government declined to take action until such time as the provinces come to an agreement. The subject has met the premier on his way west and strong representations have been made to have the matter speedily settled. So a new conference is in contemplation.

School Fair A Great Success

events of the whole day were based upon the spelling match, and as it brought forth the required amount of work, we hope he will feel recompensed as after all, virtue is its own reward.

Personally, I wish to thank all the parents for so liberally subscribing towards the children's lunch. Also those ladies who so whole-heartedly gave their time and energy during the afternoon to the serving of the lunch are deserving of our greatest esteem. By so thoroughly satisfying the material needs of the children present, they probably proved themselves the most helpful and efficient of us all.

Also I wish to thank the teachers and students who went to so much exhibits, for which no pecuniary rewards were an end in view. No doubt, the joy of doing is the greatest reward after all, as it is certainly the most to be desired. The judges who gave so liberally of their time and energy must be remembered also, especially since their judgment gave such universal satisfaction to all contenders. Lastly, Miss Freeman is to be congratulated. It was she who initiated and carried out all the arrangements, excepting the sports and spelling match. For the success of the day she is in a large measure responsible and has our heartiest thanks.

$1,000,000 Issue A Quick Success

In view of its record of service the Division is confident of engaging the active interest and sympathy of the press of Alberta, in this special effort, and especially in the campaign for Provincial Funds.

The methods of raising money in each district are left to the discretion of local branches.

Tenders were opened at noon Monday November 1st at the office of the Provincial Treasurer for One Million Dollar issue of 6 per cent 10 year Telephone Bonds which were advertised for on October 20th last.

Eighteen bids, some representing as many as four different bond houses were received in all, evidencing the keen interest taken in the high class bonds of this Province. The highest Company and the National City Com-tender was filed by Harris Forbes and pany, their bid being 100,523 and accrued interest. The bonds were consequently awarded to that firm. Since the bonds brought a premium the six per cent rate is therefore reduced to a basis of 5.92.

The next highest tender was that of Wood Gundy and Company, Toronto, who bid 99.97. Five of the bids exceeded 99. and nine were above 98.

Most of the financial houses had representatives on the ground and Hon. C. R. Mitchell, Provincial Treasurer, was the recipient of many congratulations from those present, not only on the splendid price received, but on the careful and efficient manner in which preparations had been made for the sale and prompt delivery of the bonds.

This is the highest price received by the province since the year 1915, being some four points higher than the sale of the $2,000,000 issue of identical bonds made last August.

The general opinion expressed by the bondmen present was that this is the best sale made in years by any of the Provinces of Canada.

The Provincial Treasurer announces that this sale will not interfere with the 6 per cent 10 year Domestic Certificates, which will continue to be sold as formerly at par.

In No Hurry

The railway commission, it now appears, does not intend to order suspension of the new freight rate pending review of the case as ordered by the government. The chairman re-announced that the commission will take the matter up as soon as it can get around to it, but in view of the fact that a large number of other cases are scheduled for consideration it will probably be some time before the freight rate case is reached, and in the meantime, he believes the railroads should be allowed to collect the increased rates granted in the order handed down in September. The chairman's idea seems to be that the government has no authority to do more than make suggestions to the commission in matters which that body has considered and acted on in its wisdom. In such light he regards the recent ruling of the Cabinet that the commission should review the freight rates case. The spectacle of a body created by the government having more authority than the government itself is rather unusual, even in this country where we are accustomed to almost anything. If the government has no authority over this strangely created body it is high time it created some for itself by Act of Parliament. Meanwhile, until such time as the commission finds is convenient, the former order re freight and passenger rates stands. Even when the commission finds time to hear the appeal it is by no means likely anything will be done. The chances are about a hundred to one against its repealing its former order. Judges, umpires and arbitrators rarely reverse their own decisions.

Aid To Hog Industry

In an effort to increase the hog population of Alberta the department of with the stockyards in Edmonton and Calgary for the supply of breeding sows to farmers. The best young sows will be selected from those received from either yard and will be available for stock breeders at cost prices.

It is expected that there will be a brisk demand for breeding stock this fall. Many farmers during the past two years, have entirely sold out of such stock, and now that grain has somewhat reduced in price there is a disposition among stockmen to re-establish themselves in the porker industry. They find however, that there is no local supply from which they may make a start, and the government authorities have therefore come to their help.

As a result of negotiations between the live stock commissioner and the managements of the two stockyards, good brood sows passing through the yards will be saved from slaughter and reserved for selling to breeders. The department will place a representative at each yard to see that the farmers' interests are looked after, the rest of the transaction being between the farmers and the stockyard companies.

The participation certificates brought in 48 cents a bushel to the western farmer, which placed the value of the 1919 crop at $2.50 a bushel in all parts of the prairie provinces which is very satisfactory. If the question of the national marketing of grain should be put up to a vote of the western Canadian farmers, there is little doubt about the result of it. Sir George Foster believes that we should get back to pre-war conditions at whatever cost and the government has got back to pre-war conditions.

No one person knows what is going to happen, but everyone expects changed conditions before next harvest. Next year the crop will be put in and harvested very much cheaper than it was in 1920. And the sooner we come down to a normal level the better it will be for all concerned.
